December 04, 2008

President John Pattison presided over our meeting this morning. Jeff Moore provided our morning invocation after the traditional pledge. President-elect Francine introduced our guests. Past-president Rusty was escorted by his better half, Nancy Montgomery. Ward Mitzel is a prospective member accompanied by Jack Russett. Jeff Radde was introduced by Craig Miracle. He is the new program director at the Muskingum Family Y. Judy Ross introduced Sue Hillis since husband Jim was at the speaker's table. Eric Martin and Doug Miller were also with us for breakfast.

New Dream Team members added this week are Gerry Zylinsky, past-president Mike Drake and past president Max Factor.

Jeff Moore gave an update on our web page. He intends to take a group photo at our meeting on December 18th. He is also looking for sponsors for our page.

Bill Porter announced that referrals to the Comfort Inn were made by Caribeth Legats and Past-president Gary Hamilton. They received a complimentary gift for their efforts.

Maryjane and Mike updated the club on the 12 Days project. Tickets can be dropped off at Barnes Advertising from 7 a.m. until 5 p.m. so they can be added to the drum. Keep selling! We are now over $10,000. We need to exceed our goal of $12,000. We are close but not quite there.

President John requested that we bring extra cash on December 18th to take up a collection for a Christmas gift for the Country Club staff that treats us so well. No plastic, only cash please!

Sargent-at-Arms Mary Hildebrand announced that December is family month at Rotary. Past-president Judy Ross and past president Max Factor won this morning's contest over Ruthie Ware and past president Rusty Montgomery.

An anonymous donor of $60 put Jack Imes past the finish line for the Holiday crooner. Unfortunately, Jack will be unable to attend Saturday's party and show off his musical talents so the next highest crooner will take have to stand in.

This morning's program was introduced by Past-president Jim Hillis. He introduced business partner and 6th degree black belt karate master Jeff Hardwick who is with the Coszacks Karate Club.

Jeff has been practicing martial arts since the age of 10 and has competed in over 200 tournaments placing in the top 4 in the majority of competitions.

Jeff currently teaches classes on Old Falls Road in the SEO Cheer and Tumble building and has also been teaching classes at OUZ since 1977. Jeff is the immediate past president of the Zanesville Kiwanis Club and current Commodore of the Zanesville Yacht Club. He has been with the Hillis and Hardwick Funeral Home since 1979. He has 3 children. Chase is a 2nd year student at Ohio State and daughters Megan and Jenna attend Zanesville High School.

Jeff's presentation was on women's self-defense techniques. A few sobering statistics that Jeff shared with us is that an assault occurs every 15 seconds and a rape occurs every 45 seconds. 1 of 8 women will be assaulted in their lifetime. Self-defense training is the best protection against such violence.

The 5 weapons available to a victim in a split second are their 2 hands, 2 feet and their head. They just need to be trained to use them.

We were given a demonstration by Jeff, Larry Allen and Mary Hildebrand. It was amazing to know that Larry started martial arts at age 47. He is now 81 and is a 4th degree black belt. He credits Karate with allowing him to keep active even with arthritis in his spine and knees.

50/50

The half-and-half this morning brought in $48. $12 dollars went to Jim Blythe as the lucky winner but the big pot of $362 remains in tact as Jim did not pluck the lucky penny from the pot.
