After the pledge and the invocation, President John turned the meeting over to Barbara Stainbrook for the Outstanding High School Student Musicians Recognition for 2009.

Student Awards

How do you reward a young high school performing arts student for all that practice?

Again this year, Barb Stainbrook and her committee provided recognition for some of the most gifted high school students in Muskingum County. Students, performing arts teachers and school administrators joined Daybreak Rotarians for breakfast. After our meal, Barb introduced 15 music and vocal teachers from seven area high schools. Each teacher gave us an introduction to their outstanding student before they received their award plaque. Here is a list of winners:

Bishop Rosecrans High School –

Magdalena Stijpovich

John Glenn High School –

Dakota Thorn, Lydia Gosnell and

Angelica Wisenbarger

Maysville High School –

Marah Gierard and Katie Sidwell

Philo High School –

Allison Starr and Sierra Moore

Tri-Valley High School –

Rich Hutcheson and Cathy Rozsa

West Muskingum High School –

Katie Riggle and Scott Childers

Zanesville High School –

Jessica Price, Bryan Brown and Joshua Mason

As we listened to the teachers give their introductions for their amazing student nominees, we heard the following descriptive words many times: active, enthusiastic, mature, wonderful, superior, bright, shining, brilliant, dependable, sensitive, talented, conscientious, passionate, considerate, sharing, dedicated, brightest, faithful, giving, polite, industrious, cheerful, excited, loyal, willingness to share, great leader, outstanding athletic, pushes to the limits, volunteers, my go to person, honor student, excels in class and community, leads from example, great heart, believes in music and gives it his all, warmth of character, vital part of our program. As we listened you could hear the pride pouring out from these teachers as they talked about each of their student's accomplishments.

Most Rotarians were astonished at the accomplishments of this group of students particularly our president who gave the students a great big WOW!!! at the end.

For her hard work Barb was given a Daybreak commuter cup and she signed a book tag for the library.

This Year's Performing Arts Winners

After the meeting an anonymous daybreaker was overheard saying “If you believe that our future is in the hands of our children, this group of young adults would make you proud and free from worry.”

Take Notice – Carl is back!

After a long absence, Carl Raines made a long overdue appearance at our meeting on Thursday. He is back working in Zanesville with Peoples Bank. He will open their first branch in Muskingum County on the corner of Underwood & Zane St. on Monday April 27. Carl is inviting all Day Break Rotarians, their families & friends to an Open House at his new Peoples Bank branch on Thursday, May 14 from 4 PM to 7 PM. (catering by Eaglesticks).

Reminder

The District Conference with golf will be held in Lancaster on May 14 thru May 17. Contact President John with questions.

Rotary Readers

Thanks to Rotarians for your support of Ready to Read. It has been a success this fall and we are continuing at Zanesville Day Nursery. Anyone interested in serving as a Rotary Reader on a Thursday at 10 a.m., should contact Blair Tom at 740/453.0391, ext. 131 or blair@muskingumlibrary.org. We select a short picture book, you read it to the children and you are a Rotary Reader! You are welcome to stay for the entire program but also can read to the children and return to work investing approximately 10 minutes to make a huge difference in a child's life (no guilt intended!)

Rotary Family Day

All Rotarians are invited to bring the family and enjoy fellowship and fun Sunday, June 28 at Park Central (former Armco Park). You can come for some of the day or all of the day between the hours of 1 and 8 p.m. There will be organized games for children and adults and a picnic cookout. Save the date, bring children and grandchildren and enjoy Rotary fellowship and fun at the Rotary Family Day. Contact Gerry Zylinsky for more information.
